

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

You are to write a paragraph arguing who is responsible for Caesar’s downfall: Is it fate, humanity (Brutus/ Cassius), or the gods that cause Caesar’s downfall/death?

You should write 90-110 words (more or less will result in a point deduction). Make sure to have clear explanation and text evidence from the play (cited correctly). You need to make certain you are writing in complete sentences. You should not have any overused or non-specific words. Exciting, vivid words should be chosen. You must fill out the attached Revision Checklist for Best Draft to submit with your work in order to receive credit.

| CRITERIA | Nailed It! (6.25 points) | Good Effort! (5 points) | Let’s Regroup! (3.75 points) |
|--|--------------------------|-------------------------|------------------------------|
| You wrote a best draft arguing who is responsible for Caesar’s downfall. | | | |
| You revised and edited your draft using RADaR strategy. | | | |
| You reflected on why this is your best draft, including examples of significant changes in your writing. | | | |
| You kept your paragraph between 90 and 110 words. | | | |

Score _____ 25

Keep in mind that if you include any information I am required to report, I will have to report it.

Name: _____

Date: _____ Period: _____

Title of Work: _____

Revision Checklist for Best Draft

_____ My best draft is written neatly in pen on a clean sheet of notebook paper.

_____ I have revised my best draft using the RADaR strategy.

_____ I have replaced words that were dull or vague.

_____ I have added information that needed to be added for clarity.

_____ I have deleted unnecessary sentences or phrases.

_____ I have reordered the structure if necessary.

_____ I have edited for spelling mistakes.

_____ I have checked my punctuation and all sentences have appropriate end punctuation.

_____ I have checked my internal punctuation (commas, semicolons, apostrophes, etc.)

_____ I had someone else read my revised and edited piece before re-writing it.

Their name is _____

_____ This is my best work because (not because you tried hard, reread it, or asked multiple people to read it). Include specific changes, why they occurred, and how those changes make the piece better.
