

Newspaper #1 <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Write one of the titles you see on this newspaper. How is it catchy? 2. Describe one of the pictures on the front page of the newspaper. 3. Notice how the editor does not allow any blank space in the newspaper. What is the major difference between the stories above the newspaper fold and below the newspaper fold? 4. Look at the pictures and the writing. Describe the balance between the amount of pictures and the amount of writing on the front page. 	Newspaper #2 <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Which title do you find most interesting from this newspaper? 2. Which picture is most eye catching? Describe the picture. 3. What is the name of this newspaper? What is included with the title? 4. How many articles are on this front page? 5. How many pictures are on this front page?
Newspaper #3 <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What is the masthead? 2. What is located above the masthead? 3. What can you infer is most important to this community based on the front page of this newspaper? 4. Explain why the editor chooses to lead on multiple stories as opposed to just putting one important story on the front of the newspaper? 	Newspaper #4 <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The top article on the front page of the newspaper is the most newsworthy piece. Why do you think the top article on this newspaper was placed there? 2. Write the masthead for this paper. 3. Which article can you most relate to and why? 4. Which pictures on this page are stock and which ones are credited to a photographer? 5. Notice that all pictures have captions. What do the captions have in common?
Newspaper #5 <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Write one of the titles you see on this newspaper. How is it catchy? 2. Describe one of the pictures on the front page of the newspaper. 3. Notice how the editor does not allow any blank space in the newspaper. What is the major difference between the stories above the newspaper fold and below the newspaper fold? 4. Look at the pictures and the writing. Describe the balance between the amount of pictures and the amount of writing on the front page. 	Newspaper #6 <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Which title do you find most interesting from this newspaper? 2. Which picture is most eye catching? Describe the picture. 3. What is the name of this newspaper? What is included with the title? 4. How many articles are on this front page? 5. How many pictures are on this front page?